

Office of the Child and Youth Advocate
Newfoundland and Labrador

News Release

October 21, 2019

Child and Youth Advocate Invites Feedback About Services to Children and Youth Who Are Deaf and Hard of Hearing

Child and Youth Advocate Jackie Lake Kavanagh is committed to ensuring children and youth who are deaf and hard of hearing receive the best possible education and school experience in Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Advocate invites young people and families with direct experience in the education system, as well as professionals and other stakeholders, to reach out to the Office of the Child and Youth Advocate in confidence to share their experiences and ideas.

If you are interested in participating, we welcome you to contact us using any of the following:

Email: office@ocya.nl.ca

Telephone: (709) 753-3888

Toll Free: 1-877-753-3888

In-Person: 193 LeMarchant Road, Suite 100, St. John's

Communication assistance will be provided upon request.

Media Contact:

Wilma MacInnis
Office of the Child and Youth Advocate
(709) 753-3888

wilmamacinnis@ocya.nl.ca

